

William Hays

“Calm ... exceptionally bright ... one of the go-to juniors”

Intelligent... a great eye for detail... a rising star

(Chambers & Partners)

to applications to the Strasbourg Court, and from proscribed organisation litigation to prisoner repatriation. Will is regularly instructed to advise law firms and regulated entities on their obligations to report money laundering.

Appointments include the Attorney General’s panel for civil litigation and the panels maintained by the Serious Fraud Office. Will is an editor of Millington and Sutherland Williams on The Proceeds of Crime, a contributor to Blackstone’s Criminal Practice and has been published in Judicial Review and the Lloyd’s Law Reports.

Will is ranked in both Chambers & Partners and Legal 500, appearing in a wide range of tribunals at all levels. His expertise in both public and criminal law make him sought-after in a variety of areas.

Recent instructions range from deportation to deferred prosecution agreements; from asset recovery

Crime

Will is instructed on behalf of prosecuting authorities, defendants and third parties in connection with all aspects of proceeds of crime (criminal and civil). He regularly advises law firms and financial institutions on their reporting obligations under Part 7 of POCA. He acts in civil recovery proceedings both in the High Court and Magistrates’ Court. He is an editor of the 5th Edition of Millington and Sutherland Williams on the Proceeds of Crime.

Corporate Crime

Will has substantial experience acting for corporations, particularly in connection with deferred prosecution agreements and prosecutions for bribery and corruption. He is a regular contributor to the Lloyds Law Reports (financial crime).

Fraud, Bribery and Corruption

Will acts for individuals, corporates and prosecuting authorities.

Contempt

Will acts on behalf of the Law Officers in contempt proceedings, applications for civil restraint orders and related matters. He also accepts instructions on behalf of respondents to such applications.

Immigration

Will acts in a range of immigration matters, principally in proceedings for judicial review or before the Special Immigration Appeals Commission.

Judicial Review

Will regularly appears in the High Court and Upper Tribunal in applications for judicial review and in analogous jurisdictions such as the

William Hays, Barrister, 6KBW College Hill

william.hays@6kbw.com

+44 (0)20 3301 0910

21 College Hill, EC4R 2RP